indoprint 2021: Discover opportunities at Indonesia's leading printing exhibition indoprint has become Indonesia's leading printing exhibition that has contributed to developing higher standards in the local printing industry. The trade fair presents an extensive range of printing machinery, accessories and innovative printing applications. The rapid expansion of the population, coupled with growing consumer confidence, has put Indonesia on track to achieve a larger market share in the global printing market. The flourishing economy will increase opportunities for investments in the growing sector.
