Expert Services Reduce Costs, Increase Capabilities

Chemists and engineers from Kao work and partner with organisations worldwide to offer services that reduce costs, increase productivity, and expand printing capabilities.

PRIVATE INK MANUFACTURING

We produce and supply private-label or white-labelled inks for printer OEM brands serving numerous industries and markets throughout the world of industrial printing.

CUSTOM INK FORMULATION

Our experts collaborate with you to engineer custom inks that outperform the competition, developing unique chemical formulations and versatile capabilities that meet your specifications.

CONTRACT MANUFACTURING

Kao provides custom-manufactured solvents, dyes, additives, and other chemical solutions that support your industrial ink formulation and manufacturing needs.

---

INDUSTRIAL PRINTING SUPPORT

Kao experts can offer personal assistance and responsive services for your printheads, controllers, and other critical components that support your inkjet printing operations.

BULK INK SUPPLY

Our Bulk Supply Station for HP and Funai systems provides a simple and flexible alternative to single inkjet cartridges for high-volume printing applications, offering efficiencies that improve bottom-line results.
