

CREATING TOMORROW'S WORLD

artevelde
university of applied sciences

Welcome to Artevelde University of Applied Sciences

Do you want to become a competent professional with in-demand skills? Is a broad education with plenty of opportunity for self-realisation what you are looking for? Are you eager to carve out your own path and tackle new societal challenges with creative and innovative solutions? At Artevelde University of Applied Sciences, we focus on education that inspires you to develop personally and professionally and that challenges you to think critically and globally.

Future-proof

The future of education is digital! That is why we do not shy away from using the newest and most innovative online learning platforms to engage, support, and motivate our students. And our campuses? We keep our infrastructure up to date: video classes, augmented and mixed reality, modern media labs or highly technological simulation mannequins for our nursing department. You name it, we have got it.

Design your own programme

What are you most interested in? What talents would you love to develop even further? Set your own priorities and shape your future. We let you put together your own programme. With a bunch of electives, internship possibilities, voluntary courses, minors, or masterclasses you will definitely get the most out of your study programme. You hold the key to your own international adventure and education.

INTER

Student Support Office

Our Student Support Office is well known for its student-friendly approach. They can help you achieve your goals and give you a shoulder to lean on. We offer tailor-made guidance for everyone's needs. We know that studying is challenging. Therefore, the office is accessible all the time. You can always knock on the door.

Accommodation

To find accommodation in Ghent is quite challenging. You can rent a student room on the private market, but you also have the possibility to make use of our own student homes. Besides, our coaches are ready to welcome and guide you in our dorms. Each month they organize an event in our buildings.

NATIO NAL

Social participation

In addition to education programmes, we focus on social participation to enhance the social cohesion and to improve the international experience as much as possible. Each semester we organize 'Operation Freddy', our big welcome event, a well put together introduction week, photography workshops, sports events, etc...

STUD

Feel at home

Besides the fact that we adore seeing new faces each semester of each year, we are also aware of your well-being as an international student. Therefore we actively aim for a great welcome, strong support and services by experts, and tailor-made guidance to optimize your comfort. At Artevelde UAS we are known for our international relations for many years. Our goal is to enhance the intercultural experiences of all our students.
